VIII. GENERAL POLICIES FOR REMUNERATION

The various remuneration components would be combined to ensure an appropriate and balanced remuneration package.

The five remuneration components are -

- fixed remuneration (including fixed supplements)
- performance-based remuneration (variable salary)
- pension schemes, where applicable
- other benefits in kind
- severance payment, where applicable

The fixed remuneration would be determined on the basis of the role and position of the individual, including professional experience, responsibility, job complexity and local market conditions.

The performance-based remuneration motivates and rewards high performers who significantly contribute to sustainable results, perform according to set expectations for the individual in question, and generates stakeholder value within the Group.

A. Any remuneration payable to the Executives of the Company shall abide by the following norms-

- i. The base salary shall be competitive and based on the individual Executive's key responsibilities and performance;
- ii. Base salaries would be based on a function-related salary system and be in line with the market developments shown by the benchmark research and additional market studies. When first appointed, an Executive's base salary will usually be below the maximum function-related salary. Normally (and subject to the decision of the Committee), the base salary would reach the maximum function-related salary level over a maximum 3-year period from appointment. The annual review date for the base salary would be April 1;

Adjustment of individual salaries by the Committee is influenced by the (annual) adjustment, if any, of the function related salary levels and the progress to the (maximum) function-related salary level if this level has not yet been reached;

- iii. The Executives may receive variable pay in addition to fixed salaries;
- iv. The performance-based pay to the Executives (other than Directors), including revisions in fixed remuneration, if any, would be decided by the Head of Human Resources of the Company in consultation with the Managing Director of the Company, as and when necessary, and subject to Applicable law;
- v. The performance-based pay would be granted to reflect the Company's financial results, the performance of the business unit where the Executive is employed and also, the individual's performance. The performance will be related to the fulfilment of various improvement targets or the attainment of certain financial objectives. Such targets will be set by the Board of Directors and may relate to inter alia operating income, operating margin or cash flow. Further, both financial and non-financial factors shall be taken into consideration when determining the individual's bonus. A discretionary assessment would always be ensured that other factors – including factors which are not directly measurable – have been considered;
- vi. The Board may, under specific circumstances, decide to reclaim the variable salary already paid or to cancel or limit or revise such variable salary to be paid to the Executives;
- vii. The Executives will be entitled to customary non-monetary benefits such as company cars, phone and such other fixed entitled benefits;
- viii. Pension contributions shall be made in accordance with applicable laws and employment agreements;

- ix. The Committee has decided to adopt a share-based incentive program for the Executives;
 - x. The Executives resident outside India or resident in India but having a material connection to or having been resident in a country other than India, may be offered pension benefits that are competitive in the country where the Executives are or have been resident or to which the Executives have a material connection, preferably defined-contribution plans;
 - xi. A Director may receive remuneration by way of fee for attending meetings of the Board or Committee thereof or for any other purpose whatsoever as may be decided by the Board, as permissible under Applicable law;
 - xii. If any Director draws or receives, directly or indirectly, by way of remuneration any such sums in excess of the limit as prescribed or without the prior sanction, where it is required, under the Applicable law, such remuneration shall be refunded to the Company and until such sum is refunded, hold it in trust for the Company. The Company shall not waive the recovery of any sum refundable to it;
 - xiii. A Director who is in receipt of any commission from the Company and who is a managing or whole-time director of the Company shall not be disqualified from receiving any remuneration or commission from any holding or subsidiary company of the Company, subject to its disclosure by the Company in the Board's report;
 - xiv. The Annual report would specify the Executive remuneration and would also state the general guidelines of the Policy.
- B. Any fee/remuneration payable to the Non-Executive directors of the Company shall abide by the following norms –
- i. If any such director draws or receives, directly or indirectly, by way of fee/remuneration any such sums in excess of the limit as prescribed or without the prior sanction, where it is required, under the Applicable law such remuneration shall be refunded to the Company and until such sum is refunded, hold it in trust for the Company. The Company shall not waive the recovery of any sum refundable to it;

- ii. Such directors may receive remuneration by way of fee for attending meetings of the Board or Committee thereof or for any other purpose whatsoever as may be decided by the Board, as permissible under Applicable law;
- iii. An independent director shall not be entitled to any stock option and may receive remuneration only by way of fees and reimbursement of expenses for participation in meetings of the Board or Committee thereof and profit related commission, as may be permissible by the Applicable law.
- iv. The annual report would specify the remuneration paid to the Non-Executive directors.

IX. NOTICE OF TERMINATION AND SEVERANCE PAY POLICY

- A. Save and except as provided in the terms and conditions of appointment, if the Executive resigns from the services of the company, the Executive will be required to give to the company three months' notice or salary in lieu of such notice. Similarly, if the services of Executive are terminated by the Company, the Executive will be given three months' notice or salary in lieu of such notice. For the purpose of severance pay 'Salary' means basic salary of Executive.
- B. All the Non-Executive directors shall give notice of their resignation/ termination to the Company as per the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and they will not be entitled to any severance pay from the Company.
